The group including the artist were pleased with the City's commitments to restore the art piece. We proposed a location at Virgil and Santa Monica. which the artist agreed to come back with her ideas. For now, I would hold off doing any restoration on the lights until we reconvene and develop a collective plan with the artist. CD 13 will be leading the planning efforts so be on the lookout for an invitation. Nicole will be point in our office and she will be reaching out to give you a more comprehensive update.

Happy Friday.

Barbara
